DETAILED ITINERARY

The Rainforest World Music Festival is a unique festival that brings renowned world musicians from different continents and indigenous musicians from the interiors of the mythical island of Borneo together on the same stage. The afternoons of this 3 days festival are filled with informative workshops, ethno-musical lectures, jamming sessions and mini concerts, followed by evening performances on the main stage. The Rainforest World Music Festival is a not-to-be-missed occasion and guarantees a smashing time in the jungle of Borneo!

Friday

Breakfast at the hotel.

09:00 – Your guide will pick you up for a half-day walking city tour! Kuching is a perfect city to enjoy on foot! Walk down the streets and alleys the three “white kings” already used to take during their reign of 100 years. Let the sights, sounds and smells of old Asia fill your senses with awe and discover at the same time how the Rajahs left their trademark, building those beautiful colonial buildings, like the Astana or the old courthouse. Also visit the oldest Chinese Temple in Sarawak, walk to the Waterfront jetty and, like already James Brooke used to do, take a sampan (river taxi) across the Sarawak river to visit a small Malay village. Explore the old streets of Carpenter, Gambier & India, old alleys, corridors and the oldest Indian mosque in Kuching.

12:30 hrs – Return to your hotel after the tour.

Today is the opening of the Rainforest World Music Festival! The afternoon is free at leisure for you to attend the Rainforest World Music Festival. Entrance ticket and one return shuttle Kuching – Rainforest World Music Festival (approx. 45 min. drive) included.

Saturday

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:00 hrs – This morning your guide will bring you on a tour to see Borneo’s red ape – the orang utan!

22 km south of Kuching city lies the Semenggok Nature Reserve of Sarawak. Here, rangers are teaching the once captive orang utans (Malay for “man of the jungle”) to return to the forest. During the feeding times you can observe these great animals moving up in the trees or enjoying their meals of fruits. However, please take note that due to the fact that they are semi-wild, there is no guarantee to see the animals.

11:00 hrs – Arrive back at your hotel after the tour.

The afternoon is free at leisure for you to attend the Rainforest World Music Festival. Entrance ticket and one return shuttle service included.

Sunday

Breakfast at the hotel.

Today you have a whole day free at leisure. Since the Rainforest World Music Festival takes place at the Sarawak Cultural Village, you might choose to head there before the actual festival program starts, to explore this “Living Museum” of Sarawak on your own. The Sarawak Cultural Village showcases different longhouses and other typical local types of dwelling of Sarawak’s ethnic groups and provides an opportunity to learn more about the cultures and traditions of the native tribes in Sarawak.

Today is the last day of the Rainforest World Music Festival! Enjoy the final concert! Entrance ticket and one return shuttle service included.
