SALAMMUSIK

Salammusik, a Malaysian-based band, is renowned for their unique blend of traditional and modern music. The name Salammusik is derived from two words, 'Salam' meaning 'Peace' in Bahasa Melayu and 'Musik'. The band's music is inspired by the serenity of nature and draws upon history and reality in the writing process. Their music speaks of basic human needs such as peace, the environment, love, and unity.

The band has a talent for captivating the audience with their magnetic sounds and live experience. Salammusik has performed at a variety of events and music festivals around the world, including the Samosir Music International Festival in Indonesia, Zwarte Cross Festival in the Netherlands, Sfinks Mixed in Belgium, and the Grand Prix in Singapore.

Salammusik created a sound that is both fresh and nostalgic. Their third album 'RIWAYAT', which is inspired by the history of Malaysia, is available only in hardcover book format and not online. Their latest album, 'Bisikan Sukma', was recently released on cassette and is also available online, showcasing the band's commitment to exploring new musical possibilities.

The band has received numerous music awards and nominations, including Best Album of the Year and Best Songs.
