

The Colour of Sounds Malaysia weaves rhythm and harmony into a captivating blend. Originating from Malaysia, they create a symphony of cultural diversity. Their passion for music knows no bounds, and their performances evoke the vibrant hues of their homeland. They're also known as community builders, corporate motivators, and educators. Drum circles resonate in schools, corporate retreats, and special needs groups.

Imagine standing amidst a drum circle under the Malaysian sun, where beats blend seamlessly. The Colour of Sounds orchestrates this unity, inviting everyone to join in. And remember, with The Colour of Sounds, when noise equals nature, magic happens.

In the heart of their melodies lies a remarkable founder: Haiqal Hermanshah Rahman. With vision and dedication, he brought together a group of talented drum circle facilitators, including Emily Chew and Adi Iskandar, each contributing their unique perspective to the ensemble.

Haiqal Hermanshah Rahman's commitment to celebrating Malaysia's rich heritage through music has been the driving force behind The Colour of Sounds. So, whether they're enchanting rainforests or bustling markets, The Colour of Sounds leaves an indelible mark. Their harmonious melodies echo through the vibrant streets of Kuala Lumpur, celebrating the spirit of unity that defines Malaysia.

Are you ready to join us? Grab a drum or a percussion instrument, find a seat in the circle, and let's drum! We look forward to seeing you at our drum circle sessions and workshops and having some fun! See you there!
