- ❖ With a combined experience of more than 40 years, everything these drummers and percussionists do is original. Their inspiration flows from the world around them, from people they encounter, the streets they travel to the forces of nature -- the sounds of the jungle, the tempo of the rain and the power of thunder.
- ❖ Tribal Tide fuses the musical roots of Latin and Indian percussion, African drums , Afro-Cuban drums , Middle Eastern, Brazilian drums, Australian Didjeridu and ethnic percussion. It's all about the addictive fusion of pulsating rhythms and indigenous vocalizing.
