

Our Music Group

Ensemble

Melayu Nusantara

From the lush landscapes of Kuching Sarawak to the bustling streets of Kuala Lumpur and Jakarta, our members hail from diverse backgrounds, united in their passion for Malay traditional music and performance.

About Us

Prepare to be enchanted as we unveil the magnificence of Ensemble Melayu Nusantara, a musical gem that transcends boundaries! With eleven exceptionally skilled musicians, each a star in their own right, our ensemble delivers a symphony of sensations unlike any other.

Join us on a magical musical journey where traditional and modern music blend seamlessly, creating a rich and captivating sound. From the enchanting melodies of the bamboo flute and Gambus to the energetic beats of the percussion, our performances will touch your heart and soul.

Members Next

Meet Our Team

Butong Olala

Hailing from Jakarta, he's acclaimed as Indonesia's top accordion player. He has performed at renowned festivals like Java Jazz, Borobudur Jazz, and Malacca's Traditional Malay Music Festival. His tours have taken him to Finland, Australia, Turkey, Korea, UAE, Holland, and more.

Fauziah Gambus

Apart from her exceptional singing, she's a top Gambus player in Malaysia. She's renowned for her Gambus and singing on TV programs by Indosiar TV Indonesia, amassing 24 million YouTube views. She's received numerous music awards and has toured Europe and Australia.

Abdillah Firlany

He's a versatile musician, composer, and arranger skilled in over 25 traditional and modern instruments. He's performed in major TV events like Anugerah Juara Lagu, Duo Star, Akademi Fantasia, and represented Malaysia in events across Asia and the Middle East, including the Doha Islamic Fancy Fashion Show 2013 in Qatar.

Dr Kamil Salem

Renowned as a composer, arranger, music presenter, and singer, he is also an esteemed bamboo flute player with global performances. His collaborations with musicians worldwide are showcased on YouTube. Additionally, he has appeared as a music guest on TV programs like RTM, TV3, TVS, and Astro.

Meet Our Team

Fera Ikmal

A fresh talent in the music world, humbly sharing her voice with undeniable charm and sincerity. Whether singing corporate tunes or heartfelt ballads, each performance leaving lasting impression on listeners.

Johari Morshidi

He's a seasoned professional in percussion, choreography, and dance since the 1990s. In 2009, representing Malaysia with the Tuku' Kame' band at the World Championship of Performing Arts, They earned 8 gold medals.

Ainal Bustari Bin Johari

He began his musical journey at the age of seven and later graduated from Aswara Kuala Lumpur with a diploma in music. Originally from Kuching, he is now based in Kuala Lumpur where he thrives as a professional percussionist. His music career has taken him on tours to Monaco, Indonesia, Malaysia, and various other destinations.

Mohammad Dadi

Experienced drummer with a tenure spanning from 1990 to 2024 as part of the Music Combo Radio Television Malaysia. He has toured extensively across Malaysia with the combo.

Meet Our Team

Sahminan Sirat

He's a multi-talented artist, excelling as both a painter and a percussion-focused musician. Additionally, he's proficient in playing the guitar and keyboard, often lending his skills as a sessionist.

Arisman Parman

Proficient in playing the Malay rebana drum. Additionally, skilled in playing Javanese gamelan, Javanese drums, and flute. He serves as the caretaker of the Sarawak Gamelan Music group.

Sukarno Ishak

Born in Kuching, he has been playing bass since 2014 and joined the O'Skool band in 2017. He has been actively involved in official government events and concerts in Sarawak.

Thank You

Let's journey together as we delve further into the vibrant world of Malay Traditional Music, creating cherished memories along the way.

أمانة خيرية
AMANAHAH KHAIRAT
YAYASAN BUDAYA
MELAYU SARAWAK

Rumah Laksamana, Jalan Rodway, 93000 Kuching, Sarawak.

082- 239460 / 1

akybms@gmail.com

*Ensemble
Melayu
Nusantara*
From Sarawak Malay
Cultural Foundation